DIY: REGATTA

BENEFITTING
THE LEUKEMIA & LYMPHOMA SOCIETY

LeukemiaCup.org
DIY (Do It Yourself) Fundraising is an exciting way to make a meaningful impact on the lives of blood cancer patients and their families. With DIY Fundraising, any individual effort, activity or event can become an opportunity to support LLS. From celebrating a life milestone to holding a community get-together, the possibilities are endless.

By hosting your own Regatta to benefit LLS, you are carrying on the history of the Leukemia Cup Regatta. The first Leukemia Cup Regatta took place in 1988, when Stan Wrobel, a sailor in Birmingham, Alabama lost his life to leukemia and his friends at the Pine Harbor Yacht Club decided to organize a race in his memory. Communities across the US have been holding regatta’s that benefit LLS since 1988. Since then, Leukemia Cup Regatta volunteers have raised over $73 millions for LLS.

Fundraisers do not have to own a boat or be a sailor to compete in your area. Some of our most successful fundraisers include powerboaters, stand-up paddle boarders and non-boating team members.

CAMPAIGN CHAIR

As the chair of your local event, you are the local face of the campaign, and the key to motivating others throughout the community to get involved and raise the funds necessary to achieve success.

- Set a local campaign fundraising goal.
- Develop recruitment strategies.
- Inspire your fellow committee members, yacht club officers and their members, sponsors, area sailors and non-sailors to join you in reaching your event and reaching your goal.
- Integrate the LLS mission into event activities.
- Encourage your area sailing contacts to register their boats to sail and raise funds as a team.
- Present the Winner’s Cup to your top fundraising team.

The Cup you present at your local event can be one that has meaning to your local club or sailing community.

Examples: a cup or trophy that has been part of your club’s history or donated by a club member whose life has been affected by a blood cancer.

LeukemiaCup.org
COMMITTEE MEMBERS

Just as you would not race a boat without a competent and motivated crew, you should not do all of the work yourself. Committee members are the leaders in donating and fundraising.

As you recruit committee members, you could consider identifying a sponsorship chair. This person will take the lead on identifying sponsors that could help cover the costs related to your event.

100% participation will encourage others to support the local campaign and the ultimate reason it exists: to accelerate cancer cures and improve the quality of life for patients and their families in your community and beyond.

RECRUITING AND INVOLVING YACHT CLUBS AND FLEETS

Getting as many yacht clubs and fleets as possible in your area involved in the campaign will add to the excitement and success. Take advantage of the competitive spirit of the sailing community and issue a fundraising challenge to your area clubs and fleets.

THE OFFICERS AND MEMBERS OF AREA CLUBS AND FLEETS CAN GET INVOLVED IN A NUMBER OF WAYS, INCLUDING:

• Join you in setting up a CLUB fundraising goal
• Recruiting committee members.
• Hosting an event or events to augment race weekend
• Making connections to potential sponsors
• Soliciting In-kind donations
• Sailing race(s) and classes outside of race weekend
• Hosting a poker run (check the regulations in your state)
• Promoting the event to their members through club communications, social media
• Sending a letter from the club’s commodore to membership listing the ways members can help (A sample letter is in the appendix section of this handbook.)
• Issuing a Yacht Club or Fleet Fundraising Challenge!
Tip:

Organize a Commodores meeting or reception for the flag officers at the clubs or fleets in your area at least 6-8 months prior to your event weekend to provide an overview of the campaign and ways to get involved.

Issue a Yacht Club or Fleet Fundraising Challenge!
EVENT GUIDANCE

OVERALL GUIDANCE:

- Identify volunteer roles early.
- Create a plan for revenue streams (i.e. ticket sales, games, etc.) and expenses.
  - Underestimate your revenue and overestimate your costs.
  - LLS recommends that expenses do not exceed 20%-30% of what is raised.
- Make a list of all things you will need to hold your event.
  - Identify the items you can get donated.
- Start advertising your event early.
  - Start with a save the date notice that is mailed/emailed to your contact list
  - Follow up with an official invitation
  - Encourage those that cannot attend to contribute by including a link to your fundraising page in all communication.
- Do not sign a contract on behalf of The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society.

When publicizing your event, the correct terminology for you to use is
“A(n) __________ benefiting The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society.”

SOLUTIONS FOR ADDRESSING EXPENSES:

- Plan an event that is no/low cost. When you/organizers are willing to cover the costs, this allows more time and effort to go towards fundraising to fuel LLS’s mission.
  - Holding a dinner party, or asking a friend to hold a dinner party, is one of many event ideas that you could incorporate fundraising.
- If there is local business that is looking for increased awareness in your community, they might be willing to provide funding to underwrite the expenses in exchange for being featured/mentioned as you publicize/hold the event.
  - For example, one community had a local roofing company underwrite the costs for a community concert held to benefit LLS.
- If you are holding an event where you anticipate expenses, platforms like Eventbright can be used to sell tickets and collect funds for the event.
  - LLS cannot provide tax acknowledgment to attendees who purchase a ticket.
  - After funds have been collected, you can subtract the cost for your expenses and donate the proceeds to LLS.

Event Ideas: (all of which can be held virtually!)

- Bingo Night  • Trivia Night  • Book Club  • Concert  • Wine Tasting  • Exercise Challenge

Approved Logos come in three versions: Color, Black, and Reverse White. When possible the color logo should be used except when being placed on dark surfaces/materials.

When promoting your event, please use the following guidelines for mentioning The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society:

- On first usage, always include the ® mark following “Society” (formatted superscript).
- On second reference you may say “LLS”, never say “the Society.”
- Always cap the “T” in “The” and the “S” in Society. (The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society)
- Use an ampersand (&) symbol, not the word “and”.

THE POWER OF YOUR DONATION

The below message points are designed to help donors and consumers conceptualize the impact of their donations by symbolically equating various donation amounts to facets of our mission. When referencing these figures, please use language such as “helps fund” or “helps support,” and avoid concrete wording (e.g. your $25 goes to The Bloodline with LLS). Remember to emphasize that each and every dollar can bring us closer to our goal to end blood cancers.

Donation: $25 to $1000

$25 could help fund an episode of The Bloodline with LLS, a free podcast for blood cancer patients and caregivers.

$50 could help fund free educational booklets that provide healthcare professionals and patients with the latest diagnosis, treatment, and survivorship information.

$100 could help fund a half-hour of LLS Information Specialists’ time providing free, one-on-one support to blood cancer patients and families.

$250 could help fund a critical lab supply for LLS-funded researchers.

$500 could help provide financial assistance to pediatric, young adult or adult blood cancer patients through our Urgent Need Program, established in partnership with Moppie’s Love and Charlie’s Fund.

$1,000 could help support the training of an LLS-funded research fellow for one week.
